GOO ACRES.—TO CAPITALISTS.—
At private sale or for lease, a fine Plantation in Orangeburg District, forming a part of the estate of the late Colonel Keltt, consisting of about 600 acres; 350 of it cheared. It is watered by Lyon's Creek, a large and never-failing stream. Soil rich, red clay, well adapted to cotton, corn, wheat, root crops and clover. Chimate healthy ali the year. Spiendid range for cattle; the neighborhood attractive—the adjoining plantations owned by gentlemen who reside there and secure good order. The buildings were burned, but lamber mills being near, they could be replaced cheaply. A large State road connects it with Lewisvike, South Carolina Railroad, six miles distant. The above is a splendid chance for those desiring to form a beautiful farm in a pleasant, healthy section. In 1866 these lands were returned at $20 per acre. Will be sold at half that price.
